DAILY DOUBLE RULES

Daily Double is on Races No. 1 and No. 2 on the programme.

Ask ONLY for the post position number of the horse that you have selected to win the First Half of the Daily Double. SEE THAT YOUR TICKET BEARS THE RIGHT NUMBER.

IF THE HORSE YOU HAVE SELECTED DOES NOT WIN RACE NO. 1—FIRST-HALF RACE OF THE DAILY DOUBLE—YOU ARE KNOCKED OUT OF THE POOL. Should there be no tickets sold on the winner of the first half of the Daily Double, those holding tickets on the horse finishing nearest the winner shall exchange tickets for their choice in the second half of the Daily Double.

Those who have a winning ticket from the First-half race have until five minutes before the post time of the second race (Second-half race of the Daily Double) in which to exchange their winning tickets for new tickets bearing the number of the horse they select to win the second half race of the Daily Double.

THESE TICKETS MUST BE CAREFULLY PRESERVED UNTIL THE RESULT OF THE DAILY DOUBLE POOL IS OFFICIALLY POSTED.

Should there be no tickets exchanged to the winner of the second half of the Daily Double, the pool shall be divided among those holding tickets on the horse finishing nearest to the winner.

Should there be a dead-heat in the first half of the Double, and the heat is not run off, tickets on each winning horse are to be exchanged at SEPARATE wickets for any choice in the final half and the pool calculated as a place pool.

Should there be a dead-heat in the final half of the Daily Double, and the heat is not run off, the pool is to be calculated as a place pool (this means there would be two payoffs).

Failure to exchange a First-half Winning Ticket for a selection in the Second-half race within the specified period automatically disqualifies you from any share in the Daily Double pool, whether anyone selects the winner of the Second-half race or not. You have NO REDRESS.

When there is an Entry in either of the DAILY DOUBLE races the individual horse must be named when making your Daily Double selection.

RULES FOR STARTING

Should the doors at the front of any stall gate fail to open when the starter dispatches the field, thereby causing a horse to be left, the starter shall immediately report the name of the horse to the stewards, and the stewards shall order the money wagered on such horse deducted from the pool and refunded to the purchasers of tickets on that horse.

If one horse of an entry, or one of the horses grouped in the field, leaves the gate, there shall be no refund on the entry nor on the field.

Torn or Mutilated tickets must be presented at the information wicket within THIRTY MINUTES after the race.

When buying Mutual Tickets, have the correct amount; no change will be made by the ticket seller.

"QUINELLA" RULES

The "QUINELLA" is a separate pool on the LAST RACE ONLY. The player attempts to name the two horses in the last race that finish first and second; not necessarily in the order in which they finish—just the two horses that fill the first and second places, however they finish.

Should there be no tickets sold on the winning combination, the pool is to be divided among holders of tickets on the nearest combination.

Should there be a dead-heat for first place, in the race on which the "Quinella" feature is operated, and the heat is not run off, the pool is to be divided among holders of tickets on the two horses finishing first.

Should there be a dead-heat for second place in the race on which the "Quinella" feature is operated, and the heat is not run off, the pool is to be calculated as a place pool, and divided among holders of tickets on the two winning combinations. (That is—the tickets which bear the number of the winning horse along with that of either of the horses which dead-heat for second place).

Do not destroy your "QUINELLA" tickets until the official result is posted.

Should a horse be excused from starting in a race, all money wagered on such horse shall be refunded.

NOTICE

It is a serious statutory offence to engage in hand-booking, pool-setting, etc., on a race track, and any breach of the law will result in a summary prosecution of the offender.

The Public is also reminded that it is a similar offence to make wagers in any other manner than through the mutuels and failure to comply with the regulations will lead to expulsion.

HOW TO READ THE PAST PERFORMANCES

For the convenience of the public the last six public performances of the horses are enumerated under their respective names; the most recent performances at the top.

The reading of the past performances under the names of the horses on the programme is a simple matter. A full description of the performance of Hainault Maid as set down here would be as follows: reading straight along the line. At Victoria Park; over one mile and one-sixteenth; in one minute and fifty-one seconds; on a fast track; it was a $2000 claiming race; starting at six to five; carrying 120 lbs. weight; was first at the start; third at three-quarters of the distance; second in the stretch; (3 lengths behind the leader at that point) and then won by a nose; Jockey J. Craigmyle riding; five horses running in the race, Hornet carrying 110 lbs., being second; Fort Craig 104, third; and Pensweep fourth.

HAINAULT MAID

The "Odds" given with each past performance are entirely approximate and whilst being near enough for the purpose of reference, do not represent the actual returns from the mutuels. They are therefore of no value for handbooking, pool-selling, or any illegal form of wagering.

The following abbreviations are used in the Past Performances and designate tracks at which the races were run:
